

Perkins Discovery Fund

Seeking Capital Appreciation through the Discovery of Emerging Companies

Semi-Annual Report to Shareholders

PERKINS DISCOVERY FUND

For the Six Months Ended September 30, 2015 (unaudited)

October 30, 2015

Dear Shareholders:

The six-month period ended September 30, 2015 was difficult for the Perkins Discovery Fund and micro-cap stocks in general. The Fund finished the period with a return of -19.74% versus -12.15% for the Wilshire Micro-Cap, -12.14% for the Russell 2000, -5.73% for the NASDAQ Composite and -7.15% for the S&P 500®. Micro-cap stocks, in general, performed worse than the market as a whole.

At the Perkins Discovery Fund, we follow a bottom-up approach, using both fundamental and technical chart analysis to find new investment opportunities one by one and to monitor our current holdings. During the six-month period, we acquired 2 new holdings and disposed of 4. As a result, the portfolio went from 25 holdings to 23. We started the period with 97.34% invested in securities and ended with 97.99% invested.

Our three best gaining stocks for the six-month period were LeMaitre Vascular, Inc., NeoGenomics, Inc. and Applied Optoelectronics, Inc. LeMaitre develops, manufactures and markets disposable and implantable devices for the treatment of peripheral vascular disease. Their focus on niche products and small tuck-in acquisitions allows them to grow while avoiding competition from larger companies. LeMaitre continued to perform well this fall while many other healthcare companies were declining. NeoGenomics operates a network of CLIA-certified clinical laboratories that specialize in cancer genetics diagnostic testing, servicing the needs of pathologists, oncologists, other clinicians and hospitals throughout the United States. We purchased our position in late 2013 and it has been a steady performer. They are in the fastest growing segment of the laboratory industry. Applied Optoelectronics is a leading supplier of optical components and subsystems to the fiber optics industry. Although we were early when we purchased our position in the spring of 2014, the stock has performed well this year based on strong demand for their products in the growing high-speed datacenter market.

The Fund's three worst declining stocks for the period were Cardiovascular Systems, Inc., E.W. Scripps Company and Imris, Inc. Cardiovascular Systems develops and markets orbital atherectomy medical devices for the treatment of peripheral and coronary artery disease. We purchased our position over five years ago and the stock was in a long-term uptrend, but has had a sharp correction this year, especially this fall, along with many other healthcare companies. Being a large holding due to previous appreciation, its decline had a large impact on the Fund's performance during the period. Scripps is an owner of independent TV stations, radio stations and digital journalism businesses. Purchased in 2012, Scripps had a pullback this year after its spinoff of Journal Media Group on April 1. The company is doing well, and we are continuing to be holders. Imris is a provider of image guided therapy solutions through its VISIUS surgical theatre. Unfortunately, Imris filed for Chapter 11 protection during the period and we made the decision to sell our holding.

The table below shows the Fund's performance for various periods ended September 30, 2015.

Annualized Total Return	Perkins Discovery Fund	Wilshire US Micro-Cap Index	Russell 2000 Index	NASDAQ Composite Index	S&P 500 Index

Five Year	3.65%	10.81%	10.24%	14.30%	10.97%
Three Year	4.10%	10.12%	9.54%	14.03%	10.05%
One Year	-13.67%	-2.03%	-0.09%	2.82%	-2.65%

Please note that performance data quoted represents past performance; past performance does not guarantee future results. The investment return and principal value of an investment will fluctuate so that an investor's shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. Current performance of the fund may be lower or higher than the performance quoted. Performance data current to the most recent month end may be obtained by calling 800-366-8361. The fund imposes a 1.00% redemption fee on shares held less than 45 days. Performance data does not reflect the redemption fee. If it had, the return would be reduced.

We had expected a pullback into a midterm election-year bottom at some point last year and believe that was completed in mid October, 2014. The midterm election-year bottom is typically followed by a significant rally in the pre-election year. This rally appeared to have begun with the popular indexes moving to new highs in early February. The strongest breakouts came from the Russell 2000 Index and other small-cap indexes followed by the NASDAQ Composite. However, during the second quarter most indexes were flat to down and most were down in the third quarter, so perhaps the expected pre-election year rally still lies ahead of us.

We cannot control the action of the market; however, we will continue to choose stocks that we believe can do well over the long term using our same bottom-up selection process of looking for small companies that are benefiting from positive change. And, of course, we continue to monitor our holdings. Some of these will reach levels where they will be sold, even though they may continue to be good companies. Others will not work out in the way we anticipated and will be candidates to be sold. Both will be replaced with new ideas, as part of an ongoing process. We believe the Perkins Discovery Fund is well positioned in micro-cap growth stocks that hold significant promise for the future.

Thank you for your continued support.

Sincerely,

Richard W. Perkins, C.F.A.
President

Daniel S. Perkins, C.F.A.

Opinions expressed above are those of Richard W. Perkins or Daniel S. Perkins and are subject to change, are not guaranteed and should not be considered recommendations to buy or sell any security.

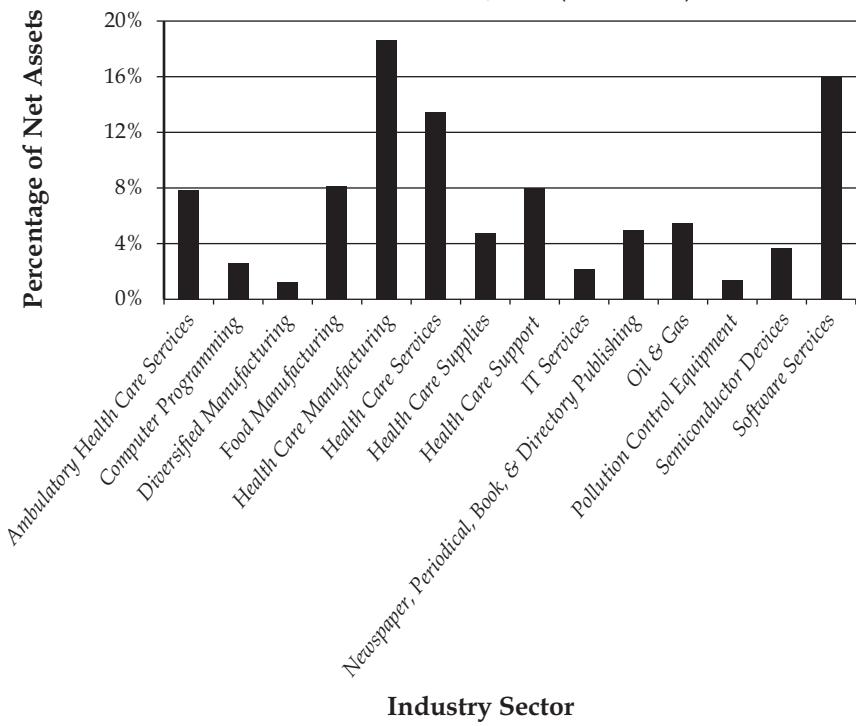

Small company investing involves additional risks such as limited liquidity and greater volatility. The fund invests in micro-cap and early stage companies which tend to be more volatile and somewhat more speculative than investments in more established companies. As a result, investors considering an investment in the Fund should consider their ability to withstand the volatility of the Fund's net asset value associated with the risks of the portfolio.

The S&P 500 Index is a broad-based unmanaged index of 500 stocks, which is widely recognized as representative of the equity market in general; the Russell 2000 Index consists of the smallest 2,000 companies in a group of 3,000 U.S. companies in the Russell 3000 Index, as ranked by market capitalization; and the NASDAQ Composite Index is a market capitalization-weighted index that is designed to represent the performance of the National Market System, which includes over 5,000 stocks traded only over-the-counter and not on an exchange. The Dow Jones Wilshire Micro-Cap Index is formed by taking the 2,500 smallest companies, as measured by Market Capitalization of the Dow Jones Wilshire 5000 Index. One cannot invest directly in an index. Please refer to the schedule of investments for more information regarding fund holdings. Fund holdings are subject to change and are not recommendations to buy or sell any security.

Investment performance reflects fee waivers in effect. In the absence of such waivers, total return would be reduced.

The Fund's prospectus contains important information about the Fund's investment objectives, potential risks, management fees, charges and expenses, and other information and should be read and considered carefully before investing. The Fund's past performance does not guarantee future results. The investment return and principal value of an investment in the Fund will fluctuate so that an investor's shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. PERKINS DISCOVERY FUND
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
September 30, 2015 (unaudited)

NOTE 1 – SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The Perkins Discovery Fund (the “Fund”) is a series of the World Funds Trust (“WFT”), which is registered under The Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, as a diversified open-end management company. WFT was organized as a Delaware statutory trust on April 9, 2007. The Fund was established on April 9, 1998 as a series of Professionally Managed Portfolios (“PMP”). On October 26, 2012, the Fund reorganized as a separate series of WFT.

The Fund follows the investment company accounting and reporting guidance of the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) Accounting Standard Codification Topic 946 “Financial Services – Investment Companies”. The Fund’s objective is to seek long-term capital appreciation.

The following is a summary of significant accounting policies consistently followed by the Fund. The policies are in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“GAAP”).

Security Valuation

The Fund’s securities are valued at current market prices. Investments in securities traded on the national securities exchanges or included in the NASDAQ National Market System are valued at the last reported sale price. Other securities traded in the over-the-counter market and listed securities for which no sales are reported on a given date are valued at the last reported bid price. Short-term debt securities (less than 60 days to maturity) are valued at their fair value using amortized cost. Other assets for which market prices are not readily available are valued at their fair value as determined in good faith under procedures set by the Board. Generally, trading in corporate bonds, U.S. government securities and money market instruments is substantially completed each day at various times before the scheduled close of the NYSE. The value of these securities used in computing the NAV is determined as of such times.

The Fund has a policy that contemplates the use of fair value pricing to determine the net asset value (“NAV”) per share of the Fund when market prices are unavailable as well as under special circumstances, such as: (i) if the primary market for a portfolio security suspends or limits trading or price movements of the security; and (ii) when an event occurs after the close of the exchange on which a portfolio security is principally traded that is likely to have changed the value of the security. Since most of the Fund’s investments are traded on U.S. securities exchanges, it is anticipated that the use of fair value pricing will be limited.

When the Fund uses fair value pricing to determine the NAV per share of the Fund, securities will not be priced on the basis of quotations from the primary market in which they are traded, but rather may be priced by another method that the Board believes accurately reflects fair value. Any method used will be approved by the Board and results will be monitored to evaluate accuracy. The Fund’s policy is intended to result in a calculation of the Fund's NAV that fairly reflects security values as of the time of pricing. However, fair values determined pursuant to the Fund's procedures may not accurately reflect the price that the Fund could obtain for a security if it were to dispose of that security as of the time of pricing.

The Fund has adopted fair valuation accounting standards that establish an authoritative definition of fair value and set out a hierarchy for measuring fair value. These standards require additional disclosures about the various inputs used to develop the measurements of fair value. These inputs are summarized in the three broad levels listed below.

Various inputs are used in determining the value of a Fund's investments. GAAP established a three-tier hierarchy of inputs to establish a classification of fair value measurements for disclosure purposes. Level 1 includes quoted prices in active markets for identical securities. Level 2 includes other significant observable market-based inputs (including quoted prices for similar securities, interest rates, prepayment speeds, credit risk, etc.). Level 3 includes significant unobservable inputs (including the Fund's own assumptions in determining fair value of investments).

The inputs or methodology used for valuing securities are not necessarily an indication of the risk associated with investing in those securities.

The following is a summary of the inputs used to value the Fund's investments as of September 30, 2015:

	Level 2		Level 3		Total
	Other	Significant Observable Inputs	Significant Unobservable Inputs
Level 1	Quoted Prices	Significant Observable Inputs	Significant Unobservable Inputs	Total
Common Stocks	$7,003,481	$-	$-	$7,003,481
Short Term Investment	143,477	-	-	143,477
	$7,146,958	$-	$-	$7,146,958

Refer to the Fund's Schedule of Investments for a listing of the securities by type and industry.

There were no Level 3 investments held during the six months ended September 30, 2015. During the six months, there were no transfers between Levels 1 and 2.

Security Transactions and Income

Security transactions are accounted for on the trade date. The cost of securities sold is determined generally on specific identification basis. Realized gains and losses from security transactions are determined on the basis of identified cost for book and tax purposes. Dividends are recorded on the ex-dividend date. Interest income is recorded on an accrual basis.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents consist of overnight deposits with the custodian bank which earn interest at the current market rate.

Accounting Estimates

In preparing financial statements in conformity with GAAP, management makes estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, as well as the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Federal Income Taxes

The Fund intends to comply with the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code applicable to regulated investment companies and to distribute all of its taxable income to its shareholders. The Fund also intends to distribute sufficient net investment income and net capital gains, if any, so that it will not be subject to excise tax on undistributed income and gains. Therefore, no federal income tax or excise provision is required.

Management has reviewed the Fund's tax positions for each of the open tax years (2013-2015) or expected to be taken in the Fund's 2016 tax returns and has concluded that no liability for unrecognized tax benefits should be recorded related to uncertain tax positions taken in the Fund's tax returns. The Fund has no examinations in progress and management is not aware of any tax positions for which it is reasonably possible that the total amounts of unrecognized tax benefits will significantly change.

Reclassification of Capital Accounts

GAAP requires that certain components of net assets relating to permanent differences be reclassified between financial and tax reporting. For the six months ended September 30, 2015, there were no such reclassifications.

NOTE 2 – INVESTMENT ADVISORY AND DISTRIBUTION AGREEMENTS AND OTHER TRANSACTIONS WITH AFFILIATES

Pursuant to an Investment Advisory Agreement, the Advisor, Perkins Capital Management, Inc. ("Perkins") provides investment services for an annual fee of 1.00% of average daily net assets of the Fund. investment activities, taxes and extraordinary expenses) in order to limit Total Annual Fund Operating Expenses After Fee Waiver and/or Expense Reimbursement for shares of the Fund to 2.00% of average daily net assets until July 31, 2014 and to 2.25% of the Fund's average net assets (the "Expense Cap") through July 31, 2016. The Agreement may be terminated at any time by the Board upon 60 days' notice to the Adviser, or by the Adviser with the consent of the Board. Each waiver or reimbursement of an expense by the Adviser is subject to repayment by the Fund within the three fiscal years following the fiscal year in which the expense was incurred, provided that the Fund is able to make the repayment without exceeding the expense limitation in place at the time of the waiver or reimbursement.

The total amount of recoverable reimbursements as of September 30, 2015 was $332,781 and expires as follows:

2016	$127,426
2017	98,106
2018	72,133
2019	35,116
	$332,781

The Fund has adopted a Distribution Plan (the "Plan") in accordance with Rule 12b-1 under the 1940 Act, providing for the payment of distribution and service fees to the Advisor as Distribution Coordinator of the Fund. The Plan provides that the Fund may pay a fee to the Advisor at an annual rate of up to 0.25% of average daily net assets of the Fund in consideration for distribution related services. For the six months ended September 30, 2015, there were $11,303 in 12b-1 expenses incurred.

Commonwealth Shareholder Services, Inc. ("CSS"), the administrative agent for the Fund, provides shareholder, recordkeeping, administrative and blue-sky filing services. CSS earned $15,000 in administrative fees for the six months ended September 30, 2015. First Dominion Capital Corp. ("FDCC") acts as the Fund's principal underwriter in the continuous public offering of the Fund's shares. For the six months ended September 30, 2015, FDCC received $243 in underwriting fees. NOTE 3 – INVESTMENTS

The cost of purchases and the proceeds from sales of securities other than short-term notes for the six months ended September 30, 2015, aggregated $170,451 and $782,212, respectively.

NOTE 4 – DISTRIBUTIONS TO SHAREHOLDERS AND TAX COMPONENTS OF CAPITAL

Distributions are determined on a tax basis and may differ from net investment income and realized capital gains for financial reporting purposes. Differences may be permanent or temporary. Permanent differences are reclassified among capital accounts in the financial statements to reflect their tax character. Temporary differences arise when certain items of income, expense, gain or loss are recognized in different periods for financial statement and tax purposes; these differences will reverse at some time in the future. Differences in classification may also result from the treatment of short-term gains as ordinary income for tax purposes.

During the six months ended September 30, 2015 and the year ended March 31, 2015, no distributions were paid.

As of September 30, 2015, the components of distributable earnings on a tax basis were as follows:

Accumulated net investment income (loss)	$ (180,563)
Accumulated net realized gain (loss) on investments	(1,656,355)
Net unrealized appreciation (depreciation) of investments	2,878,474
	$ 1,041,556

Under the Regulated Investment Company Modernization Act of 2010 (“2010 Act”), net capital losses recognized after December 31, 2010, may be carried forward indefinitely, and their character is retained as short-term and/or long-term losses. Under the laws in effect prior to the 2010 Act, pre-enactment net capital losses were carried forward for eight years and treated as short-term losses. As a transition rule, the 2010 Act requires that post-enactment net capital losses be used before pre-enactment net capital losses. As of March 31, 2015, the Fund has a capital loss carryforward of $1,791,562 available to offset future capital gains. $860,612 of the loss carryforward expires in 2018. $61,128 of short-term and $869,822 of long-term can be carried forward indefinitely.

FUND EXPENSES (unaudited)

Fund Expenses Example

As a shareholder of the Fund, you incur two types of costs: (1) transaction costs, including redemption fees and (2) ongoing costs, including management fees, distribution (12b-1) fees, and other Fund expenses. This example is intended to help you understand your ongoing costs (in dollars) of investing in the Fund and to compare these costs with the ongoing costs of investing in other mutual funds. The example is based on an investment of $1,000 invested at the beginning of the period, April 1, 2015 and held for the six months ended September 30, 2015.

Actual Expenses Example

The first line of the table below provides information about actual account values and actual expenses. You may use the information in this line, together with the amount you invested, to estimate the expenses that you paid over the period. Simply divide your account value by $1,000 (for example, an $8,600 account value divided by $1,000 = 8.6), then multiply the result by the number in the first line under the heading entitled "Expenses Paid During the Period" to estimate the expenses you paid on your account during this period.

Hypothetical Example for Comparison Purposes

The second line of the table below provides information about hypothetical account values and hypothetical expenses based on the Fund's actual expense ratio and an assumed rate of return of 5% per year before expenses, which is not the Fund's actual return. The hypothetical account values and expenses may not be used to estimate the actual ending account balance or expenses you paid for the period. You may use this information to compare the ongoing costs of investing in the Fund and other funds. To do so, compare this 5% hypothetical example with the 5% hypothetical examples that appear in the shareholder reports of the other funds.

	Beginning Account Value April 1, 2015	Ending Account Value September 30, 2015	Expenses Paid During the Period* April 1, 2015 through September 30, 2015
Actual	$1,000	$802.61	$10.14
Hypothetical (5% return before expenses)	$1,000	$1,013.75	$11.33

* Expenses are equal to the Fund's annualized expense ratio of 2.25%, multiplied by the average account value for the period, multiplied by 183 days in the most recent fiscal half year divided by 366 days in the current year.
